About I-SUN

Tradition

I-LAN Commercial Vocational Senior High School (I-Sun) is a regional, comprehensive public high school located in east I-Lan City, with both vocational and comprehensive high school programs offered on campus.

I-Sun is a driving force for the culture, economy and vitality of I-Lan. The school’s beautiful campus, well-equipped classrooms and real-world learning provide a classic, yet unique high school experience. Student-centered pedagogy and faculty excellence enable the students to make it to their chosen universities.

Connections

Home to licensing testing, I-Sun has given out numerous certificates in Web Design, Software Application, Accounting, Chinese and English Typing and Chain Store Service to students and local communities. I-Sun is only minutes away from Yi-Lan Railway Station. This traffic-friendly location allows students to focus on their studies without wasting time on transportation. It’s no wonder more than 1600 students now make I-Sun their home for learning.

I-Sun is a fast growing public school in many aspects. This can be seen through the structural changes around campus, including a new Computer Science Building, new all-purpose track-and-field infrastructures, remodeling of the Practice Hall and a state of the art language lab.

Opportunities

I-Sun takes pride in offering the county’s best vocational and commercial programs in secondary education. This has made our school a destination for many junior high schools students seeking to improve their skills and receive practical training critical to succeeding in today’s changing environment. I-Sun also provides another kind of opportunity --- to study one of a kind subjects such as, Applied English and Multimedia Design in the year 2013 and 2014 respectively.

As a result of the school’s comprehensive curriculum and emphasis on real-world experiences, I-Sun graduates are comprehensively prepared to succeed in competitive Entrance Exams and contribute to their studies.
